If the Shipper fails to pay any sum payable under this Shipping Order to ESS Cargo Services Limited ("ESS"), all sums to be paid by the Shipper to ESS under this Shipping Order and other agreements for services rendered by ESS to the Shipper shall immediately become due and payable. ESS shall have a lien on all the goods in its possession under this Shipping Order ("Goods") to secure payment by the Shipper of all sums due from the Shipper to ESS under this Shipping Order and other agreements for services rendered by ESS to the Shipper (collectively called "Charges"). In case the Charges are overdue for more than 14 days, ESS shall be entitled to dispose the Goods at its own discretion at the Shipper's expenses. In the event the proceeds of such disposal are not enough to cover the overdue Charges and the expenses incurred by ESS for such disposal, the Shipper shall pay the deficiency to ESS upon demand by ESS.

***Importer Security Filing (ISF or 10+2) goes into full enforcement for all ocean shipments to U.S. Ports inclusive the intransit shipment on Jan, 2010. If ISF is not filed on time or not filed at all. US customs will charge a penalty of US$5,000.00 - US$10,000.00 for each issue. The Shipper must response the such penalty accordingly.
